By execution of this Agreement, Customer hereby irrevocably assigns any and all of Customer’s right, title and interest in and to all such Deliverables to Igloo and waives in favour of Igloo, its licensees and successors and assigns any of its moral rights therein. Except for the limited license for access and use set out above, no rights in such Deliverables are reserved to Customer. The ownership of any other developments, products, software or other materials made or developed by Igloo shall be as mutually agreed to by the parties in writing in the applicable SOW.

7.4 Submissions. Notwithstanding any term of this Agreement, any suggestions, enhancement requests, recommendations or other feedback provided by Customer to Igloo relating to the Services (collectively “Submissions”) shall become Igloo’s sole property. 9.2 Taxes. All fees are net of any sales, use, excise, value added and similar taxes imposed by any governmental authority as well as any international shipping charges, brokerage fees, consular fees and customs duties, all of which shall be the responsibility of Customer. Customer shall pay all such taxes or charges or provide Igloo with a tax or levy exemption certificate acceptable to the taxing or levying authority. In the event that Igloo is required to pay any taxes or other charges for which Customer is responsible hereunder, Customer shall promptly pay the same to Igloo upon receipt of Igloo’s invoice therefor. For certainty, Igloo shall be responsible for any taxes related to its income or gross receipts. If, pursuant to local law, Customer is required to withhold any taxes, duties or other amounts from amounts payable to Igloo, then: (i) Customer will promptly notify Igloo; (ii) the amount payable to Igloo will be automatically increased to the full extent required to offset such tax, duty or other amount so that the amount remitted to Igloo, net of all taxes, duties and other like amounts, equals the amount payable to Igloo pursuant to this Agreement or pursuant to an invoice from Igloo, as applicable. For the purpose of determining and calculating any sales tax applicable to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, Igloo assumes that the Services will be consumed by Customer at the Customer billing address noted on the applicable Sales Contract.

If any amount owing by Customer under this Agreement or any SOW or Sales Contract is not disputed by Customer and is thirty (30) or more days overdue, Igloo may notify Customer of such late payment and allow Customer to make payment within ten (10) days of notification. Following such notice from Igloo to Customer, if Customer fails to make payment in full of such undisputed amounts within such ten (10) day period, then, without limiting Igloo’s other rights and remedies available at law or granted to Igloo in this Agreement, Igloo reserves the right to suspend Customer’s access to the Services (which would suspend the access to Igloo Environments for Named Users) with contemporaneous notice to Customer. Customer will continue to be charged and remain liable for the applicable fees and other charges for the Services during any suspension period.

10.2 Protection. Each party agrees to take the necessary precautions to maintain the confidentiality of the other party’s Confidential Information disclosed in connection with this Agreement by using at least the same degree of care as such party employs with respect to its own Confidential Information of a like kind or nature, but no less than a reasonable degree of care. Each party agrees not to use the Confidential Information of the other party for any purpose not expressly permitted by this Agreement and shall limit the disclosure of the Confidential Information to employees, contractors, subcontractors, agents or representatives of the receiving party whose knowledge of such Confidential Information will assist with the provision by Igloo of the Services and who are bound in writing by confidentiality terms no less restrictive than those contained herein.

required. If the receiving party is compelled by law to disclose the disclosing party’s Confidential Information as part of a civil proceeding to which the disclosing party is a party, and the disclosing party is not contesting the disclosure, the disclosing party will reimburse the receiving party for its reasonable cost of compiling and providing secure access to such Confidential Information.

12. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

12.1 Igloo Environment, Professional Services, and Support Services. OTHER THAN IN RESPECT OF: (I) A BREACH BY A PARTY OF ITS CONFIDENTIALITY AND PRIVACY OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT; (II) THE FRAUD, GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILFUL MISCONDUCT OF A PARTY; OR (III) CUSTOMER’S BREACH OF ITS LIMITED RIGHTS TO USE THE IGLOO PLATFORM SET FORTH IN SECTION 2.3, IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, EXEMPLARY OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES WHATSOEVER (INCLUDING DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF DATA, LOSS OF BUSINESS PROFITS, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION OR LOSS OF BUSINESS INFORMATION) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THE IGLOO ENVIRONMENT, PROFESSIONAL SERVICES, SUPPORT SERVICES, OR ANY RELATED PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT.

12.2 Igloo Applications. OTHER THAN IN RESPECT OF: (I) A PARTY’S INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS SET FORTH IN SECTION 13; (II) A BREACH BY A PARTY OF ITS CONFIDENTIALITY AND PRIVACY OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT; (III) THE FRAUD, GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILFUL MISCONDUCT OF A PARTY; OR (IV) CUSTOMER’S BREACH OF ITS LIMITED RIGHTS TO USE THE IGLOO PLATFORM SET FORTH IN SECTION 2.3, IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, EXEMPLARY OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES WHATSOEVER (INCLUDING DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF DATA, LOSS OF BUSINESS PROFITS, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION OR LOSS OF BUSINESS INFORMATION) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THE IGLOO APPLICATIONS OR ANY RELATED PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT.
12.3 Cause of Damages. Sections 12.1 and 12.2 shall apply regardless of the cause of any such damages, including under any theory of liability, whether based in contract, tort, negligence or otherwise, even if the other party has been advised of the possibility of such damages and regardless of the theory of relief.

12.4 Liability Limit. Each party’s total cumulative liability to the other party hereunder shall not exceed one million Canadian dollars (CAD$1,000,000) (the “DAMAGES CAP”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a breach by either party of its confidentiality and privacy obligations under this agreement, or for direct damages resulting from either party’s indemnification obligation under section 13.1(i) or section 13.4(i), as applicable, the damages cap shall automatically increase, without further action required by the parties, to two million Canadian dollars (CAD$2,000,000). For the sake of clarity, there shall be no limit on the damages payable by: (A) Igloo in respect of amounts owing to any third party that initiated a claim covered by section 13.1(i); (B) Customer in respect of amounts owing to any third party that initiated a claim covered by the indemnity set forth in sections 13.4(i); or (C) either party in respect of a claim resulting from fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct of such party; where, in the case of (A), (B) or (C), such damages are either awarded by a court of competent jurisdiction or paid in respect of a settlement with the applicable third party.

13. INDEMNIFICATION

13.1 Igloo Indemnity. Subject to sections 12 and 12.2 of this agreement, Igloo shall indemnify, defend and hold Customer harmless from and against any third party claims, including any losses, damages or expenses (including reasonable legal fees) arising from such third party claims, arising from or relating to: (i) infringement of any United States or Canadian patents, copyrights, trademarks or trade secrets of a third party that is specifically in connection with Customer’s use of the Igloo Platform in accordance with this Agreement (an "Infringement Claim"); or (ii) any violation of applicable law by Igloo or its personnel; provided that Customer: (a) provides Igloo with written notice of such claim within a reasonable period of time after learning of the claim; (b) agrees to allow Igloo to fully control any litigation and settlement related to such claim (provided any such settlement does not require Customer to make any payment or admission of liability); and (c) reasonably cooperates in response to Igloo’s request for assistance.

13.2 Exclusions – Infringement Claim. Igloo shall have no liability with respect to any Infringement Claim to the extent that such Infringement Claim: (i) would have been avoided but for the combination, operation or use of the Igloo Platform with any product, service, equipment or software not provided by Igloo; (ii) is based on the operation or use of the Igloo Platform in a manner not consistent with the Documentation or in violation of this Agreement; (iii) would not have arisen but for the combination or incorporation of particular Customer Data together with the Igloo Platform; or (iv) is based on or would have been avoided but for any modifications to the Igloo Platform made without Igloo’s express written approval. Igloo shall not be liable for any damages with respect to any Infringement Claim to the extent that they are calculated on the basis of the cost or value of any product or service provided to Customer by any third party.

13.3 Remedy – Infringement Claim. Should the Igloo Platform become, or if Igloo reasonably believes that the Igloo Platform may likely become, subject to an Infringement Claim, then Igloo may, at its sole option and expense: (i) procure the right for Customer to continue using the Igloo Platform; (ii) replace the same with other software, services or other material of equivalent functions and efficiency that is not subject to an Infringement Claim; (iii) modify the Igloo Platform so that the same is no longer infringing; or (iv) if Igloo determines that option (i), (ii) or (iii) cannot be achieved on a commercially reasonable basis, terminate this Agreement and refund to Customer the unused portion of any fees paid in advance by Customer for use of the Services, based on the number of full months, if any, remaining in the Term. Igloo’s liability to Customer in the event of infringement or claimed infringement shall be strictly limited to the obligations set forth in this Section 13.

13.4 Customer Indemnity. Subject to Section 12 of this Agreement, Customer shall indemnify, defend and hold Igloo harmless from and against any third party claims, including any losses, damages or expenses, (including reasonable legal fees) arising from such third party claims, arising from or relating to: (i) Customer Data and/or any infringement, misappropriation or violation of any IP Rights or privacy rights by Customer or Named Users; (ii) any violation of applicable law by Customer or Named Users; or (iii) Customer’s use of the Services in violation of this Agreement; provided that Igloo: (a) provides Customer with written notice of such claim within a reasonable period of time after learning of the claim; (b) agrees to allow Customer to fully control any litigation and settlement related to such claim (provided any such settlement does not require Igloo to make any payment or admission of liability); and (c) reasonably cooperates in response to Customer’s request for assistance.

14. TERM AND RENEWAL

14.1 Term and Renewal. This Agreement commences on the Effective Date and continues until the expiration of the Term. Prior to the conclusion of the Term, Customer and Igloo may enter into a new Sales Contract for a mutually agreed upon consecutive term (a “Negotiated Renewal Term”). Customer may provide to Igloo written notice of Customer’s intent not to renew its Sales Contract at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of the Term, in which case this Agreement will terminate on the expiration of the Term. If Customer, prior to the expiration of the Term: (i) does not enter into a new Sales Contract for a Negotiated Renewal Term; and (ii) does not provide to Igloo written notice of Customer’s intent not to renew its then-current Sales Contract(s) (such notice to be given to Igloo at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of the Term), then the then-current Sales Contract(s) shall be automatically renewed (save and except for pricing terms) at the conclusion of the Term for a further consecutive one (1) year term (such term an “Auto-Renewal Term”). The pricing for any Auto-Renewal Term shall be calculated as a ten percent (10%) increase of the annual fees in effect immediately prior to such Auto-Renewal Term. Such pricing shall apply for the duration of any Auto-Renewal Term.

14.2 Termination for Breach. In the event that either party believes that the other has materially breached any obligations under this Agreement, such party shall so notify the breaching party in writing. The breaching party shall have thirty (30) days from the receipt of notice to cure the alleged breach and to notify the non-breaching party in writing that cure has been effected. If the breach is not cured by the breaching party or the notice of breach is not withdrawn by the non-breaching party within thirty (30) days, the non-breaching party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement without further notice. In the event of a termination of this Agreement under this Section 14.2: (i) Igloo will refund any amounts prepaid for the Igloo Platform on a prorated basis if Igloo is the breaching party; and (ii) there will be no refund of any fees paid to Igloo if Customer is the breaching party. The foregoing cure period shall not apply to breaches relating to the license grants, confidentiality provisions, any outstanding amounts that are more than thirty (30) days past due, or an instance of Chronic Failure (as defined in the SLA). In the event of early termination permitted by this Agreement, Customer shall immediately cease use of the Igloo Platform and pay any amounts owing hereunder.

14.3 Immediate Termination. Either party may terminate this Agreement effective immediately (without providing a right to cure or refund of any portion of fees) if the other party institutes or if any proceeding is commenced against or affecting the other party: (i) seeking to adjudicate it as bankrupt or insolvent; (ii) seeking liquidation, dissolution, winding up, arrangement, protection, relief or composition of it or any of its property, assets or debt; (iii) making a proposal with respect to it under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or compromise of debts or other similar laws; or (iv) seeking to appoint a receiver, trustee, agent, custodian or other similar official for it or for all or part of its assets or property.

14.4 Changes or Discontinuance of a Service. Igloo may change or terminate features (for example, blogs, calendars, file sharing, tasks and wikis) or functionality of a Service in its sole discretion at any time. In the event of any material change to the Igloo Platform, Igloo will: (i) use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Customer of such change or termination and, (ii) permit the Customer to terminate this Agreement without cause, provided that Customer provides Igloo with at least thirty (30) days’ prior written notice of the termination of this Agreement and such notice is provided within 90 days of the effective date of such change to or termination of a feature or the functionality of a Service. Change to or termination of a particular feature or functionality of a Service by Igloo shall not automatically terminate this Agreement and the terms and conditions of this Agreement and any other agreements between the parties shall remain in full force and effect, unaffected hereby.

14.5 Effect of Termination. Upon the termination, expiration or non-renewal of this Agreement: (i) Customer shall pay all undisputed fees and other amounts owing to Igloo at such time; (ii) Customer’s rights to use the Igloo Platform shall be terminated and Customer shall immediately cease use of the Igloo Platform; (iii) all Customer Data (save and except for any Customer Data contained in Usage Data) shall be promptly irretrievably deleted from the Igloo Environment(s) and the System by Igloo; and (iv) each of the parties shall return or destroy all Confidential Information of the other party that is in its possession, care or control (and that, in the case of Igloo, is not Customer Data). Notwithstanding the foregoing, each party receiving Confidential Information will not be obligated to delete electronic Confidential Information (that, in the case of Igloo, is not Customer Data) that is stored in any disaster recovery or back-up/archival storage in accordance with its policies, provided that any such retained Confidential Information will continue to be subject to Section 10 of this Agreement. Any terms and conditions of this Agreement, which by their nature extend beyond the termination or expiry of this Agreement, shall survive the termination or expiry of this Agreement, including Sections 1, 2.4(d), 3.1, 3.4, 3.5, 6.2, 7, 8.2, 9, 10, 11.2, 12, 13, 14.2, 14.5 and 15.

15. MISCELLANEOUS

15.1 Entire Agreement and Amendments. This Agreement, including all Sales Contracts, SOWs and all other documents incorporated herein by reference, constitutes the complete and exclusive agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes and replaces any and all prior or contemporaneous discussions, negotiations, understandings, representations and agreements, written or oral, regarding such subject matter, including any terms contained in Customer's purchase order. The terms and conditions of any agreements (including purchase orders) supplied by Customer shall not be applicable even if Igloo has purportedly accepted the same, unless accepted in writing by an authorized officer of Igloo. Except where expressly stated otherwise in this Agreement, all amendments to this Agreement must be made in a writing executed by an authorized representative of each party to be effective.

15.2 Severability. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is determined to be unenforceable or invalid under any applicable law or by applicable court decision, such unenforceability or invalidity shall not render this Agreement unenforceable or invalid as a whole, and, in such event, such provision shall be changed and interpreted so as to best accomplish the objectives of such provision within the limits of applicable law or applicable court decisions.

15.3 Waiver. The waiver by either party of a breach of any provisions contained herein shall be in writing and shall in no way be construed as a waiver of any other breach or of any succeeding breach of such provision or the waiver of the provision itself.

15.4 Assignment. This Agreement may not be assigned by either party without the prior written approval of the other party, which will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may, without consent of the other party, assign this Agreement as part of a merger, corporate reorganization or similar transaction, provided that the assignee to whom this Agreement is assigned will have the same or better fiscal capacity to fulfill the terms of this Agreement as did the assignor at the time of assignment. The parties agree that a change of control of either party shall not be deemed to be an assignment of this Agreement by that party. This Agreement will be binding on and enure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.
15.5 Independent Contractors. Igloo and Customer are independent contractors and this Agreement, including the provision of any Services by Igloo to Customer, will not establish any relations of partnership, joint venture, employment, franchise or agency between the parties. Neither party will have the power to bind the other or incur obligations on the other’s behalf without the other’s prior written consent, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement.

15.6 Force Majeure. Except with respect to payment obligations hereunder, time for performance shall automatically be extended by that period by which one party is prevented from meeting its obligations by any cause beyond its reasonable control (“Force Majeure Event”). Each party will use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent or avoid any event, condition or circumstance that would result in such Force Majeure Event. Failing prevention of the occurrence of such Force Majeure Event by the use of such efforts, the party unable to perform as a result of such Force Majeure Event will: (i) notify the other party immediately; and (ii) use commercially reasonable efforts to recommence performance of its obligations under this Agreement whenever possible, including through the use of alternate sources, workaround plans, implementation of a disaster recovery plan or other means.

15.7 Governing Law. This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of: (i) the State of New York, if the Igloo Environment is hosted in the United States of America as identified in accordance with Section 2.1; or (ii) the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein, if the Igloo Environment is hosted in Canada as identified in accordance with Section 2.1, in each case without reference to conflict of laws provisions. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (also called the Vienna Convention) will not apply to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

15.8 Jurisdiction of Disputes. For the conduct of any legal proceedings under, or related to, this Agreement, the parties agree to the exclusive jurisdiction of: (i) the state and federal courts of the State of New York, if the governing law is that of the State of New York as determined in accordance with Section 15.7; or (ii) the courts of the Province of Ontario, if the governing law is that of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein as determined in accordance with Section 15.7.

15.9 Disputes. In the event of a claim of breach of contract or other dispute arising between the parties (a “Dispute”), excluding claims for breach of Sections 3.6 (Data Security), 10 (Confidentiality), or 13 (Indemnification), a party shall deliver written notice to the other party stating the nature of the dispute (the “Dispute Notice”) and representatives of each party that have not been directly involved in previous efforts to resolve the Dispute shall negotiate in good faith in an effort to resolve the Dispute. No formal proceedings for resolution of any Dispute shall be commenced until the earlier of the following: (i) the representatives of Igloo and Customer conclude in good faith that amicable resolution through continued negotiation is not likely to occur; (ii) thirty (30) days have elapsed since delivery of the Dispute Notice and a meeting between the parties has not been convened, or a party has not acted in good faith; or (iii) either party desires injunctive relief. If the parties are unable to settle the Dispute within thirty (30) days following the delivery of the Dispute Notice, then such Dispute shall be resolved, if possible, by a process of mediation agreed upon by the parties, acting reasonably. Such mediation shall be held in English and shall be held within sixty (60) days following the delivery of the Dispute Notice. If the parties are unable to settle the Dispute within ten (10) days of the commencement of the mediation described herein, then either party may commence formal proceedings in accordance with Section 15.8.

15.10 Injunctive Relief. Notwithstanding Section 15.8 or Section 15.9, nothing in this Agreement shall prevent either party from applying to a court of competent jurisdiction for injunctive or other equitable relief in the case of an infringement of IP Rights or the breach of an obligation of confidentiality, to preserve or protect real or tangible property from continuing damage or risk of same or to preserve a legal right for which the applicable limitation period is about to expire.

15.13 Titles. The Section titles in the Agreement are solely used for convenience of the parties and have no legal or contractual significance.

15.14 Authority. Each party represents and warrants that: (i) it is an entity validly subsisting under the laws of the jurisdiction in which it is organized; (ii) it possesses full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder; (iii) its performance of the terms of this Agreement will not breach any separate agreement by which such party is bound; and (iv) it shall at all times comply with applicable laws.

15.15 Legal Compliance. Igloo Property is subject to the export control laws of various countries, including Canada.
